

Recipe Alert Use cases:

- User can log in with oauth for google and be directed to the user page.
- User can view saved recipes from user page.
- User can update profile in settings and change display name and email.
- User can view tags for user submitted symptoms for each of their saved recipes.
- User can delete recipe records saved on profile in the user page.
- User can add their own symptoms for the recipe in the user page.
- User can search for recipe based on the dish name or ingredient or both.
- User can add searched recipe by saving it to profile.
- User can search for symptoms for each of the recipe searched given by the api.
- User can view warnings for posted symptoms of the recipe in a page view with warnings and what the app think the user should
- avoid or use less of or have no qualms about.
- User can view instructions by clicking on the row of the recipe under the url hyperlink and be redirected to the url.